

SET UP YOUR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT FOR SUCCESS:

KEY SKILLS AND STRATEGIES

Join Executive Function expert, Jennifer Flewelling, M.Ed. and Gap Year Advisor, Katherine Stievater for a discussion on how parents can help their teens have a more enjoyable high school experience. They will explain how students can acquire important life skills that will help them thrive in high school and beyond, and how any student can benefit by taking a gap year prior to college.

WHEN

Wednesday, October 9th
7:00 – 8:00pm

WHERE

Robbins Library

700 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, MA

Free Registration. Search for event on EventBrite.com or click here: <https://bit.ly/2kPCVoa>

SPEAKERS:

Jennifer Flewelling,
Beyond BookSmart

Jennifer leads school-based professional development to teachers and other providers. She has 20 years of experience in education and is an Assistant Professor at Endicott College.

Katherine Stievater
Gap Year Solutions

Katherine helps students successfully transition to college by creating customized Gap Year plans that help build important life skills. She is on the Advisory Board of the Gap Year Association, is a Professional member of IECA, and speaks nationally about Gap Years.